Dear Parents,

Homework Arrangements for Absent Students

For students who are absent from school because of sickness, a new date for handing in homework will be accordingly set by the subject teachers. Therefore, it is not necessary for parents to take homework home for the child on the absent day. You are also not advised to request the school bus nannies to collect or hand in your child's homework. The school expects you will remind your child to take sufficient rest at home and bring up his/her immunity for a speedy recovery if he/she cannot attend lessons at school.

Yours sincerely,

Paul CHO
Principal
